Action Filed: September 27, 2023

DENTONS US LLP

TO THE CLERK OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendants The Prudential Insurance Company of America, Pruco Life Insurance Company, and Pruco Life Insurance Company of New Jersey (collectively, “Defendants”), contemporaneously with the filing of this Notice of Removal, hereby seeks removal of the below-referenced action from the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Tulare, to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California.

The removal is based on 28 USC §§ 1332, 1441, and 1446, specifically on the following grounds:

1. On September 27, 2023, Plaintiff Valerie Nepinsky (“Plaintiff”) filed a Complaint with the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Tulare, entitled Valerie Nepinsky v. The Prudential Insurance Company of America, a corporation; Pruco Life Insurance Company, a corporation; Pruco Life Insurance Company of New Jersey, a business form unknown; and Does 1 through 20, inclusive, Case No. VCU302224 (the “Action”). Azarmi Decl., Ex. A.

2. In the Action, Plaintiff alleges breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, intentional misrepresentation, and negligent misrepresentation against all Defendants, in connection with Plaintiff’s claim for benefits under Prudential life insurance policy number L8154811 (the “Policy”), which has a $500,000 death benefit. Compl. ¶¶ 37–54, 55–67, 68–76, 77–84.

3. On October 5, 2023, Defendants received a copy of the Summons and Complaint in the Action via personal service. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Summons and Complaint.

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(a) and 1441(b) because there is complete diversity of citizenship between all Plaintiff and all Defendants and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

DIVERSITY OF CITIZENSHIP

5. For the purpose of citizenship, an individual is a citizen of a state in which they are domiciled. Kantor v. Wellesley Galleries, Ltd., 704 F.2d 1088, 1090 (9th Cir. 1983). Similarly, “a

1 corporation shall be deemed to be a citizen of every State and foreign state by which it has been
2 incorporated and of the State or foreign state where it has its principal place of business.” 28
3 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1). Under Supreme Court law, a corporation’s “principal place of business”
4 refers to the “place where a corporation's officers direct, control, and coordinate the corporation's
5 activities.” Hertz Corp. v. Friend, 559 U.S. 77, 92–93 (2010). This is commonly referred to as the 6 “nerve center” of a corporation, and it is “normally the place where the corporation maintains its 7 headquarters—provided that the headquarters is the actual center of direction, control, and 8 coordination . . .” Id. at 93. Finally, for the purpose of determining diversity for jurisdictional
9 purposes, “the citizenship of defendants sued under fictitious names shall be disregarded.” 28
10 U.S.C. § 1441(b)(1); see also Gardiner Family, LLC v. Crimson Res. Mgmt. Corp., 147 F. Supp.
11 3d 1029, 1036 (E.D. Cal. 2015) (holding that “Does” named in Complaint without any indication 12 as to their identities or relationship to the action are wholly fictitious and properly disregarded for 13 jurisdictional purposes).

14 6. Plaintiff alleges she is an individual who resides in Tulare County, California.
15 Compl. ¶ 1.

16 7. Defendant The Prudential Insurance Company of America (“PICA”) is a
17 corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey with its principal place of 18 business in Newark, New Jersey. At all relevant times, PICA directed, controlled, and coordinated 19 its activities from its headquarters in New Jersey.

20 8. Defendant Pruco Life Insurance Company (“Pruco”) is a corporation incorporated
21 under the laws of the State of Arizona with its principal place of business in Newark, New Jersey.
22 At all relevant times, Pruco Life directed, controlled, and coordinated its activities from its 23 headquarters in New Jersey.

24 9. Defendant Pruco Life Insurance Company of New Jersey (“Pruco NJ”) is a
25 corporation under the laws of the State of New Jersey with its principal place of business in 26 Newark, New Jersey. At all relevant times, Pruco NJ directed, controlled, and coordinated its 27 activities from its headquarters in New Jersey.

28 10. Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to identify Does 1 – 20. Compl. ¶ 7.

11. Thus, there was and is complete diversity of citizenship between Plaintiff and Defendants under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(a).

AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY

12. Diversity jurisdiction exists “where the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs.” 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a).

13. Plaintiff does not plead a specific amount of damages in his Complaint. Consequently this Court must only find, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the total amount in controversy exceeds $75,000. See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(c)(2)(B).

14. Plaintiff’s Complaint is silent as to the total amount in controversy, but seeks judgment for general, special, economic and consequential damages, prejudgment interest, costs of suit and attorneys’ fees. Compl., Prayer, ¶¶ 1–5. Plaintiff has stated that this action is premised on the denial of the Policy’s benefits. Compl. ¶ 51. Plaintiff further alleges that she was entitled to the Policy’s benefits and that Defendants “ha[ve] withheld from Plaintiff, either as the beneficiary under the Policy or as the assignee of all the beneficiary’s contractual rights and benefits under the Policy, the $500,000 in indemnity benefits owed under the Policy.” Compl. ¶ 5

15. The Court may consider facts in the Complaint as well as documents incorporated by reference which form the basis of Plaintiff’s claim. See U.S. v. Ritchie, 342 F.3d 903, 908 (9th Cir. 2003); Kroske v. U.S. Bank Corp., 432 F.3d 976, 980 (9th Cir. Dec. 23, 2005).

16. Plaintiff alleges the Policy a benefit of $500,000; consequently, the amount in controversy is $500,000. See Elhouty v. Lincoln Benefit Life Co., 886 F.3d 752, 756 (9th Cir. 2018) (holding that when the action seeks payment of the policy benefit, that is the amount in controversy). The amount in controversy as to this claim exceeds the $75,000 threshold to establish diversity jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(a).

17. Within the Ninth Circuit, “[i]t is long-established that in declaratory judgment actions about whether an insurance policy is in effect or has been terminated, the policy’s face amount is the measure of the amount in controversy.” Elhouty v. Lincoln Ben. Life Co., 886 F.3d 752, 756 (9th Cir. 2018); see also Desai v. Lincoln Nat’l Life Ins. Co., 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 122841, *5 (E.D. Cal. July 13, 2020) (“where a complaint alleges that a life insurance policy has

1 been wrongfully terminated, ‘the amount in controversy in cases dealing with life insurance
2 policies necessarily is the face amount of the policy’”) (citing Sandstrom v. Protective Life Ins.,
3 Co., 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 194754, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Mar. 14, 2013) (finding validity of a life
4 insurance policy at issue because the plaintiff alleged that the defendant improperly canceled the 5 policy)); Rand v. Midland Nat’l Life Ins., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 131918, *9-10 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 6 2019) (same).

7 18. Plaintiff also seeks punitive damages, emotional damages, and attorneys’ fees and 8 costs, each often exceeding the minimum jurisdictional amount on their own. (Prayer for Relief);
9 Campbell v. Hartford Life Ins. Co., 825 F. Supp. 2d 1005, 1008 (E.D. Cal. 2011) (holding 10 jurisdictional minimum may be satisfied through special and general damages, punitive damages,
11 and attorneys’ fees); Simmons v. PCR Tech., 209 F. Supp. 2d 1029, 1034 (N.D. Cal. 2002) 12 (“emotional distress damages may be considered when calculating the amount in controversy even 13 where not clearly pled in the complaint”); Cain v. Hartford Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 890 F. Supp. 2d 14 1246, 1250 (C.D. 2012) (court was within its discretion to find attorney’s fees estimated over the 15 course of the entire litigation would exceed jurisdictional limit). Although Defendants believe 16 there is no basis to award punitive damages in this case, such requests for relief are considered in 17 determining the amount in controversy. See Gibson v. Chrysler Corp., 261 F.3d 927, 945 (9th Cir.
18 2001); Surber v. Reliance Nat. Indem. Co., 110 F. Supp. 2d 1227, 1232 (N.D. Cal. 2000). Using a 19 1:1 ratio for punitive to compensatory damages (which courts have described as “conservative”)
20 yields an amount in controversy that plainly exceeds $75,000. See Bayol v. Zipcar, Inc., 2015 WL
21 4931756, *9 (N.D. Cal., August 18, 2015) (“using a conservative 1:1 ratio for punitive to 22 compensatory damages” to determine that amount in controversy requirement was satisfied); see
23 also Tompkins v. Basic Research LL, 2008 WL 1808316, *4 (E.D. Cal., April 22, 2008) (accord);
24 James Dickey, Inc. v. Alterra America Ins. Co., 2015 WL 4537732, *3 (C.D. Cal., July 27, 2015)
25 (concluding that punitive damages awards in insurance bad faith cases range from $64,417 to 26 $646,471.53); Winery v. Graham, 2007 WL 963252, *3 (N.D. Cal., Mar. 29, 2007) (amount in 27 controversy satisfied where plaintiff alleged $40,680 in compensatory damages and sought 28 punitive damages).

19. Accordingly, the amount in controversy in the Action, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $75,000 and therefore satisfies the amount-in-controversy requirement of 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a) to establish diversity jurisdiction.

TIMELINESS OF REMOVAL

20. Defendants were served with Plaintiff's Complaint on October 5, 2023.

21. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)(1), this Notice of Removal is timely filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of Plaintiffs' Complaint. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)(1) ("The notice of removal of a civil action or proceeding shall be filed within 30 days after the receipt by the defendant, through service or otherwise, of a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim for relief upon which such action or proceeding is based."); see also Harris v. Bankers Life and Cas. Co., 425 F.3d 689, 692–93 (9th Cir. 2005) (noting that this thirty-day window begins to run where the case clearly is removable on the basis of jurisdictional facts apparent from the face of the complaint, "i.e., complete diversity of citizenship").

VENUE IS PROPER

22. The Action was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Tulare, and venue is therefore proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 84(a), 1391, 1441(a), and 1446.

NOTICE TO PLAINTIFF AND SUPERIOR COURT

23. Contemporaneously with the filing of this Notice of Removal in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), written notice of this filing and any attendant supplementary papers required by this Court will be given to Plaintiff, and a copy of the Notice of Removal will be filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Tulare.

7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and therefore sue these defendants by such fictitious names and capacities. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all relevant times alleged in this Complaint, each of the fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the injuries and damages to Plaintiff. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this Complaint when their names and participation in the acts alleged herein have been ascertained.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of the defendants named herein was the agent, servant, or employee of each of the remaining defendants, and at all times mentioned herein, each was acting within the scope and authority of such agency or employment and for the mutual benefit of the other defendants.

VENUE

9. Venue is proper in this Court because: Tulare County is where the subject life insurance contract was entered into; Tulare County is where the contract is to be performed; and Tulare County is where the obligation or liability arises.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

10. Plaintiff's deceased husband, Brian Nepinsky, co-owned a business named FFL Inc. ("FFL") in Visalia, California, along with Chris Riddington.

11. FFL purchased PRUDENTIAL Life Insurance Policy No. L8154811 (the "Policy"). When the Policy was issued, FFL was the owner of the Policy. Brian Nepinsky was the insured. Chris Riddington was the beneficiary.

12. In August of 2020, FFL was in the process of closing its business. Since FFL was closing its business, with the agreement of FFL and Chris Riddington, Brian Nepinsky sent a proper notice of change of beneficiary form to PRUDENTIAL, naming Plaintiff as the beneficiary. The change of beneficiary form was returned to Brian Nepinsky on the grounds that the change of beneficiary form was not signed. However, the change of beneficiary form did not have a signature line. Plaintiff alleges that she should have been the beneficiary under the Policy in and after August of 2020.

13. Consistent with the facts alleged in the preceding paragraph (that FFL, Mr. Riddington and Mr. Nepinsky agreed that Plaintiff should be the recipient of any Policy benefits if Mr. Nepinsky died), on July 26, 2021, Chris Riddington assigned, in writing, to Plaintiff all rights and benefits he had as beneficiary under the Policy. The assignment states: "I, Chris Riddington, hereby agree to assign all rights and benefits I may have as beneficiary under the [P]rudential policy number L8154811 for owner FFL, Inc. and insured Brian Nepinsky to Valerie Nepinsky." The assignment is dated July 26, 2021, and is signed by Mr. Riddington, as Secretary and Treasurer of FFL. As alleged infra, PRUDENTIAL has known of this assignment since shortly after September 27, 2021.

14. According to PRUDENTIAL, FFL did not pay the Policy's $635.00 annual premium due by the due date of July 26, 2020.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges that, in violation of California law, PRUDENTIAL did not provide notice to the named Policy owner, FFL, of a missed premium payment within 30 days of the missed July 26, 2020, premium payment and did not provide a notice of pending lapse and termination of policy to the named Policy owner, FFL, at least 30 days prior to any purported Policy termination. Cal. Ins. Code §§ 10113.71(b)(1), (3), 10113.72(c);

1 McHugh v. Protective Life Ins. Co., 12 Cal. 5th 213, 240 (August 30, 2021).

2 16. In addition, pursuant to California Insurance Code section 10113.71(a) ("Section
3 10113.71(a)"), "[e]ach life insurance policy issued or delivered in this state shall contain a provision
4 for a grace period of not less than 60 days from the premium due date. The 60-day grace period shall
5 not run concurrently with the period of coverage. The provision shall provide that the policy shall
6 remain in force during the grace period."

7 17. Based on Section 10113.71(a), regardless of when the Policy was issued (prior to or
8 after Section 10113.71(a) taking effect on January 1, 2013) or what the stated grace period is in the
9 Policy, the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law, to contain a grace period of 60 days. McHugh, supra,
10 12 Cal. 5th at 240. This means that, regardless of whether the annual premium was paid, indemnity
11 is owed under the Policy if, as happened here, the insured dies within 60 days of July 26, 2020.
12 McHugh, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer
13 will be required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ... [although] the insurer
14 would be entitled to deduct the unpaid premium payment from any life insurance benefits it pays
15 out.").

16 18. In addition, Insurance Code section 10113.72(a) and (b) require that an insurer notify 17 an individual life insurance policy applicant (subdivision a) and the policy owner (subdivision b) "of
18 the right to designate at least one person, in addition to the applicant [and policy owner], to receive
19 notice of a lapse or termination of a policy for nonpayment of premium." Insurance Code section 20 10113.72(c) provides that no "individual life policy shall lapse or be terminated for nonpayment of
21 premium unless the insurer, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the lapse or termination,
22 gives notice to the policy owner and to the person or person designated pursuant to subdivision (a)."

23 19. In this case, on information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that PRUDENTIAL violated
24 Insurance Code section 10113.72(a) and (b) by not notifying FFL at the inception of the Policy and/or
25 annually of its of its right to designate at least one other person, in addition to the applicant and policy
26 owner, to receive notice of a lapse or termination of a policy for nonpayment of premium. As alleged
27 on information and belief supra, PRUDENTIAL never sent a notice of pending lapse and termination
28 of the Policy at least 30 days before any purported Policy lapse or termination. However, even if,

1 hypothetically, PRUDENTIAL did so, its violation of Insurance Code section 10113.72(a) and (b)
2 would render such notice invalid and null and void.

3 20. PRUDENTIAL sent a September 3, 2020, letter to FFL enclosing a bill for the $635.00
4 annual premium. PRUDENTIAL's September 3, 2023, letter did not mention any missed payment,
5 pending Policy lapse or that the Policy had terminated. PRUDENTIAL's September 3, 2020, letter
6 was sent during the mandatory 60-day grace period in which the Policy is required to remain in force.

7 21. On September 4, 2020, Brian Nepinsky tragically died in a plane crash that occurred
8 that day.

9 22. On September 15, 2020, Plaintiff sent a check for $635.00 to PRUDENTIAL, which
10 was made payable to PRUDENTIAL. This check was sent to PRUDENTIAL while the Policy was 11 still in force due to the mandatory 60-day grace period.

12 23. PRUDENTIAL subsequently cashed Plaintiff's September 15, 2020, check.

13 24. By letter dated September 15, 2020, to FFL, PRUDENTIAL advised FFL that
14 PRUDENTIAL had not yet received the $635.00 payment due by July 26, 2020, but that the Policy
15 could be reinstated with a payment received by September 26, 2020. However, as noted, on 16 information and belief, as required by the law, PRUDENTIAL never sent to FFL a notice of pending
17 lapse and termination of policy at least 30 days before any purported termination of the Policy. In
18 addition, as of the date of PRUDENTIAL's September 15, 2020, letter, the Policy remained in force
19 due to the legally required 60-day grace period. Therefore, PRUDENTIAL's letter falsely stated that
20 the Policy had terminated. The letter further stated that if payment had already been made, the letter
21 could be disregarded. As noted, the payment had already been made by Plaintiff by check dated
22 September 15, 2020, and PRUDENTIAL cashed the check.

23 25. On September 29, 2020, PRUDENTIAL sent another letter to FFL stating that while
24 payment had not yet been received and although the Policy had lapsed, the Policy was eligible for
25 reinstatement. Again, Plaintiff paid the annual premium due before the expiration of the mandatory
26 60-day grace period and, on information and belief, without PRUDENTIAL ever having sent to FFL
27 a notice of pending lapse and termination of policy at least 30 days prior to any purported termination
28 of the Policy.

1       26. In addition, under the McHugh case, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233, regardless of whether
2 Plaintiff paid the annual $635.00 premium, since Mr. Nepinsky died during the legally mandated 60-
3 day grace period, PRUDENTIAL owed the $500,000 in indemnity benefits under the Policy.

4       27. PRUDENTIAL sent a letter dated October 24, 2020, to FFL, which enclosed a
5 PRUDENTIAL check for $635.00. The letter stated that PRUDENTIAL could not accept the check
6 because the Policy had lapsed. The PRUDENTIAL check was not cashed.

7       28. By letter dated September 27, 2021, Rene Turner, counsel for Plaintiff, made a claim
8 under the Policy on behalf of Plaintiff. Ms. Turner's letter discussed the factual history of the matter.
9 Ms. Turner's letter also stated that the change of beneficiary request made in August of 2020 (from 10 Mr. Riddington to Plaintiff), had been improperly rejected. Ms. Turner further provided a copy of the 11 July 26, 2021, written assignment of Mr. Riddington's rights and benefits, as a beneficiary under the 12 Policy, to Plaintiff. Ms. Turner's letter asked for confirmation that the Policy was in full force when
13 Mr. Nepinsky died. Ms. Turner's letter also stated: "I also hereby demand full payment of the policy."

14       29. Ms. Turner's letter further stated: "In the event it is your position that the policy was 15 not in effect, please provide written documentation setting forth a basis for your denial and provide a
16 complete copy of the file regarding this policy, including but not limited to, a copy of the policy, the 17 application, all payment records and all correspondence regarding this policy."

18       30. After having received Ms. Turner's September 27, 2021, letter, given its duties under
19 the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing and applicable California claims handling
20 regulations, PRUDENTIAL was required to "conduct and diligently pursue a thorough, fair and
21 objective investigation ...." Cal. Code Regs. Title 10, § 2695.7(d). PRUDENTIAL failed to conduct
22 any meaningful investigation. PRUDENTIAL did not contact Ms. Turner or Plaintiff. Based on
23 information and belief, PRUDENTIAL did not contact Mr. Riddington.

24       31. An "insurer bears a common law obligation to assist the insured to recover bargained-
25 for policy benefits. ... This obligation is often described as a manifestation of the duty of good faith
26 and fair dealing, which arises from every contract as an implied covenant generating both a
27 contractual obligation and a duty in tort." City of Hollister v. Monterey Insurance Company, 165 Cal.
28 App. 4th 455, 490-491 (2008). Despite the foregoing duty owed by PRUDENTIAL, PRUDENTIAL

1 made no effort to assist Plaintiff to recover benefits owed under the Policy.

2 32. Instead, by letter to Ms. Turner dated November 8, 2021, and without having engaged
3 in any meaningful investigation of the facts or controlling law, Kimberly King, Vice President of
4 Operations for PRUDENTIAL, represented as follows: "Our records indicate that this policy lapsed
5 on 8/26/2020 due to non-payment of an annual premium that was due on 7/26/2020. The insured died
6 on 9/4/2020 and the check from Valerie Nepinsky is dated 9/15/2020. A policy cannot be reinstated
7 after the death of the insured." The letter claimed that the payment "submitted by Valerie Nepinsky
8 was returned to the owner of the policy, FFL Inc., on 10-27-2020."

9 33. The November 8, 2021, letter sent by Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations
10 for PRUDENTIAL, further represented: "Unfortunately, the letter dated 9/15/2020, advising the
11 owner they were able to reinstate this policy, had already been mailed before the death of the insured
12 was reported to Prudential. This policy had a 31 day grace period before it would lapse if payment is
13 received within that grace period and before the death of the insured as it is explained on the letter
14 dated 9/15/2020 which was addressed to the owner, FFL Inc."

15 34. In the McHugh case, based on California Insurance Code section 10113.71(a), the 16 California Supreme Court held that "if the insured dies during the extended grace period [60 days
17 following the premium due date], the insurer will be required to pay benefits for which it has not
18 received a premium ... [although] the insurer would be entitled to deduct the unpaid premium
19 payment from any life insurance benefits it pays out." McHugh, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233

20 35. The opinion in the McHugh case, supra, 12 Cal. 5th 213, was issued on August 30,
21 2021. As a Vice President of Operations for a major life insurer conducting the business of insurance
22 in California, Ms. King and her employer, PRUDENTIAL, knew or should have known of the holding
23 in the McHugh case at and before the time that Ms. King sent her November 8, 2021, letter to Ms.
24 Turner. Therefore, the November 8, 2021, letter sent to Plaintiff's counsel by PRUDENTIAL's Vice
25 President of Operations intentionally or negligently misrepresented that the grace period was 31 days
26 rather than the legally mandated 60 days.

27 36. Under California's claims handling regulations, when an insured makes a 28 communication "that reasonably suggests that a response is expected, every licensee, shall

1 immediately, but in no event more than fifteen days after receipt of that communication, furnish the
2 claimant with a complete response based on the facts as the known by the licensee." Cal. Code Regs.
3 Title 10, § 2695.5(b). Despite Ms. Turner's request to PRUDENTIAL contained in her September
4 27, 2021, letter, PRUDENTIAL never sent Ms. Turner a complete copy of the file regarding the
5 Policy, including but not limited to, a copy of the Policy, the application, all payment records and all
6 correspondence regarding this Policy.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 Breach of Contract

9 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

10 37. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 36, above, as if set
11 forth in full herein.

12 38. FFL and PRUDENTIAL entered into a contract of life insurance (the Policy).

13 39. As relevant here, the material terms of the Policy were that: FFL was the owner of the 14 Policy; Brian Nepinsky was the insured under the Policy; Chris Riddington was the beneficiary under
15 the Policy; the Policy limits were $500,000.00; and upon the death of the insured, PRUDENTIAL
16 would pay the beneficiary $500,000.00.

17 40. As alleged supra, in August of 2020, prior to Mr. Nepinsky's death, because FFL was
18 closing its business, Chris Riddington, a co-owner of FFL, along with Brian Nepinsky, no longer
19 needed to be named as a beneficiary. A proper change in beneficiary form was sent to PRUDENTIAL
20 changing the beneficiary from Chris Riddington to Plaintiff. The document was improperly returned
21 by PRUDENTIAL claiming it did not have a signature. However, the PRUDENTIAL change in
22 beneficiary form did not have a signature line. As a result, Plaintiff should be considered the sole
23 beneficiary under the Policy as of August of 2020.

24 41. Alternatively, if Chris Riddington is deemed to be the sole beneficiary under the Policy
25 on the date that Mr. Nepinsky died, on July 26, 2021, as alleged supra, Chris Riddington assigned, in
26 writing, all rights and benefits he may have as beneficiary under the Policy to Plaintiff. Mr.
27 Riddington did so because that was the intent of FFL, Mr. Riddington and Mr. Nepinsky in August
28 of 2020 to make Plaintiff the beneficiary under the Policy. Therefore, as Mr. Riddington's assignee,

1 Plaintiff stands in the shoes of Mr. Riddington as the beneficiary under the Policy and has the
2 contractual right to receive all contractual benefits due under the Policy. As alleged supra,
3 PRUDENTIAL has known of the assignment of rights since receiving Ms. Turner's September 27,
4 2021, letter to PRUDENTIAL.

5 42. While the annual premium of $635.00 purportedly due by July 26, 2020, was not paid
6 by FFL on or before that date, as alleged supra, on information and belief, PRUDENTIAL never sent
7 a notice of pending lapse to FFL at least 30 days prior to any Policy lapse as required by California
8 law. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(b)(1).

9 43. In addition, as alleged supra, pursuant to California Insurance Code section
10 10113.71(a), regardless of when the Policy was issued or what the stated grace period is in the Policy,
11 the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law, to contain a grace period of 60 days past the missed premium
12 due date of July 26, 2020. The statutory 60-day grace period requirement supersedes any conflicting
13 language contained in the Policy. That means the Policy was required to remain in force, regardless
14 of whether the annual $635.00 annual premium was paid, for 60 days after July 26, 2020.

15 44. In addition, as alleged supra, PRUDENTIAL sent a September 3, 2020, letter to FFL.
16 That letter simply enclosed a bill for $635.00. The letter did not mention any missed payment or 17 policy lapse.

18 45. On September 4, 2020, Brian Nepinsky tragically died in a plane crash that occurred
19 that day.

20 46. As alleged supra, Mr. Nepinsky's death occurred on September 4, 2020, which is 21 within the legally required 60-day grace period when the Policy remained in force regardless of
22 whether the Policy contained a 31-day grace period or whether the annual $635.00 premium was
23 paid. McHugh, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the
24 insurer will be required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ... [although] the
25 insurer would be entitled to deduct the unpaid premium payment from any life insurance benefits it
26 pays out.").

27 47. Nevertheless, on September 15, 2020, Plaintiff sent a check for $635.00 to
28 PRUDENTIAL which was made payable to PRUDENTIAL.

1 48. PRUDENTIAL subsequently cashed the check.

2 49. Plaintiff presented a claim to PRUDENTIAL via Ms. Turner's September 27, 2021,
3 letter to PRUDENTIAL.

4 50. Plaintiff and her assignor and FFL satisfied all conditions required under the Policy
5 and/or any such conditions allegedly complied with were waived by PRUDENTIAL and/or
6 PRUDENTIAL is equitably estopped from raising such conditions.

7 51. On November 8, 2021, PRUDENTIAL breached the Policy by not paying Plaintiff the
8 $500,000.00 limits of the Policy as demanded by Plaintiff. The breach occurred when PRUDENTIAL
9 refused to pay the benefits by its November 8, 2021, letter, not when PRUDENTIAL improperly
10 terminated the Policy. Poe v. Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, 2023 WL 5251875, at 11 * 4 (C.D. Cal. August 14, 2023).

12 52. Since the insured, Mr. Nepinsky, died within the legally mandated 60-day grace
13 period, PRUDENTIAL owed the full $500,000 indemnity limits of the Policy minus the unpaid
14 premium (which was in fact paid to PRUDENTIAL by Plaintiff on September 15, 2020).

15 53. PRUDENTIAL's November 8, 2021, breach of contract was a substantial factor in 16 causing Plaintiff's harm.

17 54. As a result of PRUDENTIAL'S breach of the Policy, Plaintiff has suffered damages,
18 including, but not limited to, loss of the $500,000 indemnity payment owed under the Policy, and
19 interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional harm and other consequential and incidental
20 damages to be proven at trial.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 Tortious Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

23 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

24 55. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 54, above, as if set
25 forth in full herein.

26 56. As alleged in the preceding cause of action, as a result of its breach of the Policy on
27 November 8, 2021, PRUDENTIAL has withheld from Plaintiff, either as the beneficiary under the
28 Policy or as the assignee of all the beneficiary's contractual rights and benefits under the Policy, the

1 $500,000 in indemnity benefits owed under the Policy.

2 57. PRUDENTIAL's withholding of the benefits owed under the Policy was unreasonable
3 and without proper cause.

4 58. First, on information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that PRUDENTIAL knew that it did
5 not lawfully provide notice of a pending Policy lapse and termination of policy to FFL, the owner of
6 the Policy, at least 30 days prior to any purported Policy termination.

7 59. Next, as alleged supra, even if the PRUDENTIAL Policy specifies a 31-day grace
8 period (and PRUDENTIAL has refused Plaintiff's request for a copy of the Policy), PRUDENTIAL
9 knew or should have known, particularly because the McHugh decision was issued at least two
10 months prior to PRUDENTIAL's claim denial, that California law has mandated that every life
11 insurance policy contain a 60-day grace period provision. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a); McHugh,
12 supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer will be
13 required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ... [although] the insurer would be
14 entitled to deduct the unpaid premium payment from any life insurance benefits it pays out."). The 15 statutory 60-day grace period requirement supersedes any conflicting language contained in the 16 Policy.

17 60. Prudential knew that Mr. Nepinsky's death occurred on September 4, 2020, which was 18 within the legally required 60-day grace period when the Policy was still in force regardless of 19 whether the Policy contained a 31-day grace period or whether the annual $635.00 premium was paid
20 (which it was ultimately timely paid).

21 61. PRUDENTIAL also knew that on September 3, 2020, during the required 60-day
22 grace period, PRUDENTIAL sent a bill for the annual $635.00 premium owed by FFL and that
23 Plaintiff subsequently paid said premium by check dated September 15, 2020. PRUDENTIAL also
24 knew that it cashed the September 15, 2020, check for the $635.00 annual premium payment.

25 62. Despite PRUDENTIAL's knowledge of the matters set forth above and as alleged
26 supra, in response to Plaintiff's counsel's September 27, 2021, letter making a claim to Prudential on
27 behalf of Plaintiff and demanding that PRUDENTIAL pay the Policy limits, by letter dated November
28 8, 2021, and without conducting any meaningful investigation, and violation of the statutory law

1 discussed, supra, and the McHugh case, PRUDENTIAL breached the Policy, in bad faith, by refusing
2 to pay the full indemnity limits owed. PRUDENTIAL also refused, in violation of its duty of good
3 faith and fair dealing and California claims handling regulations, to provide documents, upon the
4 request of Plaintiff's counsel, which are relevant to Plaintiff's claim for Policy benefits and
5 PRUDENTIAL's refusal to provide Policy benefits (see paragraphs 29, 36, supra).

6 63. PRUDENTIAL's November 8, 2021, denial letter also misrepresented California law
7 regarding the required grace period. PRUDENTIAL claimed that the Policy contained a 31-day grace
8 period. Notwithstanding what grace-period language the PRUDENTIAL Policy may contain (and 9 PRUDENTIAL refused Plaintiff's request for a copy of the Policy), PRUDENTIAL knew or should
10 have known, following the McHugh decision, that California law mandates that every life insurance
11 policy contain a 60-day grace period provision. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a).

12 64. The decision in the McHugh case was issued over two years ago. Notwithstanding that
13 PRUDENTIAL must be well-acquainted with said decision by now, PRUDENTIAL never re-opened
14 and evaluated Plaintiff's claim to determine whether PRUDENTIAL improperly withheld policy
15 benefits because of the McHugh decision and the California statutes discussed supra. PRUDENTIAL
16 obviously decided, for selfish economic reasons, to be reactive, not proactive, by defending against
17 the few lawsuits that arise (most consumers and attorneys who are not insurance coverage counsel
18 are not familiar with the statutes mentioned in this Complaint and the McHugh case) rather than re-
19 opening claims and paying claims which should have previously been paid and which are still owed.

20 65. PRUDENTIAL's unreasonable denial of coverage on November 8, 2021, and its other
21 bad faith conduct as alleged herein, has caused substantial harm to Plaintiff. This harm includes, but
22 is not limited to, the $500,000 in indemnity limits due to Plaintiff and unreasonably withheld by
23 PRUDENTIAL, and interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional distress, and other
24 economic damages, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

25 66. As a further result of PRUDENTIAL unreasonably withholding Policy benefits which
26 are due to Plaintiff, Plaintiff has had to retain attorneys to seek recovery of such Policy benefits. As
27 a result, under the authority of Brandt v. Superior Court, 37 Cal. 3d 813 (1985), Plaintiff is entitled
28 to recovery of her attorneys' fees incurred in seeking benefits unreasonably withheld by

1 PRUDENTIAL.

2 67. In addition, PRUDENTIAL's conduct as alleged herein has been oppressive,
3 fraudulent, and malicious, and such conduct has been authorized and/or ratified by the officers
4 (Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations), directors, or managing agent (Kimberly King, Vice
5 President of Operations) of PRUDENTIAL, thereby entitling Plaintiff to the recovery of punitive
6 damages against PRUDENTIAL.

7 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

8 INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION

9 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

10 68. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 67, above, as if set
11 forth in full herein.

12 69. By letter dated November 8, 2021, Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations, of 13 PRUDENTIAL, made the following representation to Plaintiff's counsel: "This policy had a 31 day
14 grace period before it would lapse if payment is received within that grace period and before the death
15 of the insured as it is explained on the letter dated 9/15/2020 which was addressed to the owner, FFL
16 Inc."

17 70. The foregoing representation was false, because even if the Policy contains a 31-day
18 grace-period and regardless of when the Policy was issued, the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law,
19 to contain a 60-day grace period and the Policy applies if the insured dies during the 60-day grace
20 period regardless of whether the overdue premium is paid. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a); McHugh,
21 supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer will be 22 required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ....").

23 71. Kimberly King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on
24 behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL,
25 knew that the representation was false when she made it, or she made the representation recklessly
26 and without regard for its truth.

27 72. Kimbely King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on
28 behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL,

1 intended that Plaintiff rely on the representation.

2 73. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the representation.

3 74. As a result, Plaintiff was harmed.

4 75. Plaintiff's reliance on said representation was a substantial factor in causing her harm.
5 This harm includes, but is not limited to, the $500,000 in indemnity limits due to Plaintiff and
6 unreasonably withheld by PRUDENTIAL, and interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional
7 distress, and other economic damages, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

8 76. In addition, PRUDENTIAL's conduct as alleged herein has been oppressive,
9 fraudulent, and malicious, and such conduct has been authorized and/or ratified by the officers
10 (Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations), directors, or managing agent (Kimberly King, Vice
11 President of Operations) of PRUDENTIAL, thereby entitling Plaintiff to the recovery of punitive
12 damages against PRUDENTIAL.

13 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

15 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

16 77. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 76, above, as if set
17 forth in full herein.

18 78. By letter dated November 8, 2021, Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations, of 19 PRUDENTIAL, made the following representation to Plaintiff's counsel: "This policy had a 31 day
20 grace period before it would lapse if payment is received within that grace period and before the death
21 of the insured as it is explained on the letter dated 9/15/2020 which was addressed to the owner, FFL
22 Inc."

23 79. The foregoing representation was false, because even if the Policy contains a 31-day
24 grace-period and regardless of when the Policy was issued, the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law,
25 to contain a 60-day grace period and the Policy applies if the insured dies during the 60-day grace
26 period regardless of whether the overdue premium is paid. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a); McHugh,
27 supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer will be 28 required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ....").

1 80. Kimberly King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on
2 behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL,
3 made such a representation. Although Ms. King may have honestly believed that the representation
4 was true, she had no reasonable grounds for believing the representation was true when she made it.

5 81. Kimbely King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on
6 behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL,
7 intended that Plaintiff rely on the representation.

8 82. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the representation.

9 83. As a result, Plaintiff was harmed.

10 84. Plaintiff's reliance on said representation was a substantial factor in causing her harm.
11 This harm includes, but is not limited to, the $500,000 in indemnity limits due to Plaintiff and
12 unreasonably withheld by PRUDENTIAL, and interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional
13 distress, and other economic damages, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

14 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

15 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against all Defendants as follows:

16 1. For all compensatory damages suffered and sustained by Plaintiffs on the first, second,
17 third and fourth causes of action, including economic damages, mental and emotional distress, and 18 Brandt attorney's fees, all in an amount to be proven at trial:

19 2. For punitive damages pursuant to the second and third causes of action;

20 3. For prejudgment interest on the economic damages;

21 4. For all awardable court costs; and

22 5. For such other and further relief in law or in equity as the Court deems just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers: If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases: A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases: In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Information Packet

Overview & History

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is an increasingly popular option that allows people to resolve disputes outside of court in a cooperative manner. ADR can be faster, cheaper, and less stressful than going to court. Most importantly, the use of ADR can provide greater satisfaction with the way disputes are resolved.

ADR has been gradually evolving within the Fresno Superior Court for the past several years. In 1999 the Court recognized a need for greater public access to dispute resolution for cases and established an ADR Department. This department assists parties by providing information regarding ADR processes and services.

Civil Standing Order Regarding ADR:

In 2006, a Case Management Conference (CMC) Standing Order 07-0628, was implemented requiring parties in general civil cases filed in Fresno County Superior Court to participate in ADR prior to trial. This order and supporting ADR forms can be found on the court's website, www.fresno.courts.ca.gov under the "Forms," section. Please note, participation in ADR does not eliminate the need for proper and timely filing of case documents, such as an Answer to Complaint.

Disputes

ADR techniques have been used successfully in a variety of disputes involving individuals, small and large businesses, government, and the general public. Various types of ADR processes are available depending on the nature of the dispute. Many types of conflict often lend themselves to an alternative and informal method of dispute resolution. Some examples of disputes often settled by ADR include but are not limited to:

- Business disputes- contracts, partnerships
- Property / Land use disputes- property transfers, boundaries, easements
- Family disputes – divorce, property, custody, visitation, support issues
- Consumer / Collection disputes- repairs, services, warranties, debts
- Employment disputes- employment contracts, terminations
- Landlord/tenant disputes- evictions, rent, repairs, security deposits
- Neighborhood disputes / Relational disputes or other civil or personal conflicts
- Personal Injury / Insurance disputes- accidents, coverage, liability

Processes:

The most common forms of ADR are Mediation, Arbitration, and Case Evaluation. In most ADR processes, a trained, impartial person decides or helps the parties reach resolution of their dispute together. The persons are neutrals who are normally chosen by the disputing parties or by the court. Neutrals can often help parties resolve disputes without having to go to court or trial. Below is a description of commonly used processes:

Mediation

In mediation, the mediator (a neutral) assists the parties in reaching a mutually acceptable resolution of their dispute. Unlike lawsuits or some other types of ADR, the mediator does not decide how the dispute will be resolved, the parties do. It is a cooperative process guided by the mediator to create an agreement that addresses each person's interests. Mediation often leads to better communication between the parties and lasting resolutions. It is particularly effective when parties have a continuing relationship, such as neighbors or businesses. It also is very effective where personal feelings are getting in the way of a resolution. Mediation normally gives the parties a chance to express their concerns in a voluntary and confidential process while working towards a resolution. The mediation process is commonly used for most civil case types and can provide the greatest level of flexibility for parties.

Arbitration

In arbitration, the arbitrator (a neutral) reviews evidence, hears arguments, and makes a decision (award) to resolve the dispute. This is very different from mediation whereby the mediator helps the parties reach their own resolution. Arbitration is generally quicker, less expensive and less formal than a lawsuit. An arbitrator can often hear a case in a matter of hours rather than days in a trial. This is because the evidence can be submitted by documents rather than by testimony.

1. Binding Arbitration: Usually conducted by a private arbitrator, this process takes place outside of the court. "Binding" means that the arbitrator's decision (award) is final and there will not be a trial or an opportunity to appeal the decision.
2. Non-Binding Arbitration: May be ordered through the court (Judicial Arbitration) or conducted privately. In this process, the arbitrator's decision is "not binding." This means that if a party is not satisfied with the decision of the arbitrator, they can file a request for trial with the court within a specified time. However, depending on the process if that party does not receive a more favorable result at trial, they may have to pay a penalty.

Case Evaluation

In case evaluation, the evaluator (a neutral) gives an opinion on the strengths and weaknesses of each party's evidence and arguments. Each party gets a chance to present their case and hear the other side. This may lead to a settlement, or at the least, help the parties prepare to resolve the dispute later. Case evaluation, like mediation, can come early in the dispute and save time and money. The case evaluation process is most effective when parties have an unrealistic view of the dispute, need outside assistance in determining case value, and have technical or procedural questions to be worked out. This process is sometimes used in combination with mediation or arbitration.

ADR Agreements:

Agreements reached through ADR are normally put into writing and can become binding contracts that are enforceable in court. Parties may choose to seek the advice of an attorney as to your legal rights and other matters relating to the dispute before finalizing any agreement.

ADR Process Selection & Information:

There are several other types of ADR. Some of these include Conciliation, Settlement Conference, Fact Finding, Mini-Trial, Victim Offender Conferencing, and Summary Jury Trial. Sometimes parties will try a combination of ADR types. The important thing is to find the type of ADR that is most likely to resolve the dispute. Contact the ADR department staff for assistance for additional information and referral to services appropriate for each specific case.

Advantages & Disadvantages of ADR:

Advantages

- Often quicker than going to trial, a dispute may be resolved in a matter of days or weeks instead of months or years.
- Often less expensive, saving the litigants court costs, attorney's fees and expert fees.
- Permits more participation and empowerment, allowing the parties the opportunity to tell their side of the story and have more control over the outcome.
- Allows for flexibility in choice of ADR processes and resolution of the dispute.
- Fosters cooperation by allowing the parties to work together with the neutral to resolve the dispute and mutually agree to a remedy.
- Often less stressful than litigation. Most people have reported a high degree of satisfaction with ADR.

Because of these advantages, many parties choose ADR to resolve disputes instead of filing a lawsuit. Even after a lawsuit has been filed, the court can refer the dispute to a neutral before the lawsuit becomes costly. ADR is even used to resolve disputes after trial, when the result is appealed.

Disadvantages

- ADR may not be suitable for every dispute.
- If the ADR process is binding, the parties normally give up most court protections, including a decision by a judge or jury under formal rules of evidence and procedure, and review for legal error by an appellate court.
- ADR may not be effective if it takes place before the parties have sufficient information to resolve the dispute.
- The neutral may charge a fee for his or her services. If the dispute is not resolved through ADR, the parties may then have to face the usual and traditional costs, such as attorney's fees and expert fees.
  - Lawsuits must be brought within specified periods of time, known as Statutes of Limitations. Parties must be careful not to let a Statute of Limitation run while a dispute is in an ADR process

Neutral Selection:

The selection of a neutral is an important decision. Please note that currently there is no legal requirement that the neutral be licensed or hold any particular certificate. However, many programs and the Court have established qualification requirements and standards of conduct for their neutral panels.

Mediation Services Offered by Fresno County Superior Court

Mediation Practitioner Panel:

Fresno County Superior Court, Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Department maintains a fee-for-service Mediation Panel as a public service for court litigants and the community. Those listed have met the Court's eligibility requirements and have agreed to abide by the Court's professional standards of conduct in order to participate as a panel member. The panel list can be found on the Court's website under the Alternative Dispute Resolution link,

www.fresno.courts.ca.gov/alternative\_dispute\_resolution/Mediator

Free / Low Cost ADR Service Options

For cases involving self-represented litigants or those unable to afford a private mediator, the court contracts with the following organization to provide free or low cost mediation services through Dispute Resolution Program Act (DRPA) funding.

- Better Business Bureau Mediation Center- *This organization provides mediation for family law property disputes, small claims, landlord / tenant, business, consumer/ merchant, harassment, and neighborhood disputes. COMPLAINT

2. Defendant, THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA, a corporation, has, at all relevant times, conducted the business of life insurance in Tulare County, California.

3. Defendant, PRUCO LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, a corporation, has, at all relevant times, conducted the business of life insurance in Tulare County, California.

4. Defendant, PRUCO LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW JERSEY, business form unknown, has, at all relevant times, conducted the business of life insurance in Tulare County, California.

5. Defendants, THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA, PRUCO LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY and PRUCO LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW JERSEY will hereafter collectively be referred to as "PRUDENTIAL".

6. Defendants DOES 1 through 20, are unknown, but are believed to be operating on behalf of or with the authority of Defendants or are otherwise liable for the events alleged herein and Plaintiffs' damages alleged herein.

7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and therefore sue these defendants by such fictitious names and capacities. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of the defendants named herein was the agent, servant, or employee of each of the remaining defendants, and at all times mentioned herein, each was acting within the scope and authority of such agency or employment and for the mutual benefit of the other defendants.

VENUE

9. Venue is proper in this Court because: Tulare County is where the subject life insurance contract was entered into; Tulare County is where the contract is to be performed; and Tulare County is where the obligation or liability arises.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

10. Plaintiff's deceased husband, Brian Nepinsky, co-owned a business named FFL Inc. ("FFL") in Visalia, California, along with Chris Riddington.

11. FFL purchased PRUDENTIAL Life Insurance Policy No. L8154811 (the "Policy"). When the Policy was issued, FFL was the owner of the Policy. Brian Nepinsky was the insured. Chris Riddington was the beneficiary.

12. In August of 2020, FFL was in the process of closing its business. Since FFL was closing its business, with the agreement of FFL and Chris Riddington, Brian Nepinsky sent a proper notice of change of beneficiary form to PRUDENTIAL, naming Plaintiff as the beneficiary. The change of beneficiary form was returned to Brian Nepinsky on the grounds that the change of beneficiary form was not signed. However, the change of beneficiary form did not have a signature line. Plaintiff alleges that she should have been the beneficiary under the Policy in and after August of 2020.

13. Consistent with the facts alleged in the preceding paragraph (that FFL, Mr. Riddington and Mr. Nepinsky agreed that Plaintiff should be the recipient of any Policy benefits if Mr. Nepinsky died), on July 26, 2021, Chris Riddington assigned, in writing, to Plaintiff all rights and benefits he had as beneficiary under the Policy. The assignment states: "I, Chris Riddington, hereby agree to assign all rights and benefits I may have as beneficiary under the [P]rudential policy number L8154811 for owner FFL, Inc. and insured Brian Nepinsky to Valerie Nepinsky." The assignment is dated July 26, 2021, and is signed by Mr. Riddington, as Secretary and Treasurer of FFL. As alleged infra, PRUDENTIAL has known of this assignment since shortly after September 27, 2021.

14. According to PRUDENTIAL, FFL did not pay the Policy's $635.00 annual premium due by the due date of July 26, 2020.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges that, in violation of California law, PRUDENTIAL did not provide notice to the named Policy owner, FFL, of a missed premium payment within 30 days of the missed July 26, 2020, premium payment and did not provide a notice of pending lapse and termination of policy to the named Policy owner, FFL, at least 30 days prior to any purported Policy termination. Cal. Ins. Code §§ 10113.71(b)(1), (3), 10113.72(c);

1 McHugh v. Protective Life Ins. Co., 12 Cal. 5th 213, 240 (August 30, 2021).

2 16. In addition, pursuant to California Insurance Code section 10113.71(a) ("Section
3 10113.71(a)"), "[e]ach life insurance policy issued or delivered in this state shall contain a provision
4 for a grace period of not less than 60 days from the premium due date. The 60-day grace period shall
5 not run concurrently with the period of coverage. The provision shall provide that the policy shall
6 remain in force during the grace period."

7 17. Based on Section 10113.71(a), regardless of when the Policy was issued (prior to or
8 after Section 10113.71(a) taking effect on January 1, 2013) or what the stated grace period is in the
9 Policy, the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law, to contain a grace period of 60 days. McHugh, supra,
10 12 Cal. 5th at 240. This means that, regardless of whether the annual premium was paid, indemnity
11 is owed under the Policy if, as happened here, the insured dies within 60 days of July 26, 2020.
12 McHugh, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer
13 will be required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ... [although] the insurer
14 would be entitled to deduct the unpaid premium payment from any life insurance benefits it pays
15 out.").

16 18. In addition, Insurance Code section 10113.72(a) and (b) require that an insurer notify 17 an individual life insurance policy applicant (subdivision a) and the policy owner (subdivision b) "of
18 the right to designate at least one person, in addition to the applicant [and policy owner], to receive
19 notice of a lapse or termination of a policy for nonpayment of premium." Insurance Code section 20 10113.72(c) provides that no "individual life policy shall lapse or be terminated for nonpayment of
21 premium unless the insurer, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the lapse or termination,
22 gives notice to the policy owner and to the person or person designated pursuant to subdivision (a)."

23 19. In this case, on information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that PRUDENTIAL violated
24 Insurance Code section 10113.72(a) and (b) by not notifying FFL at the inception of the Policy and/or
25 annually of its of its right to designate at least one other person, in addition to the applicant and policy
26 owner, to receive notice of a lapse or termination of a policy for nonpayment of premium. As alleged
27 on information and belief supra, PRUDENTIAL never sent a notice of pending lapse and termination
28 of the Policy at least 30 days before any purported Policy lapse or termination. However, even if,

1 hypothetically, PRUDENTIAL did so, its violation of Insurance Code section 10113.72(a) and (b)
2 would render such notice invalid and null and void.

3 20. PRUDENTIAL sent a September 3, 2020, letter to FFL enclosing a bill for the $635.00
4 annual premium. PRUDENTIAL's September 3, 2023, letter did not mention any missed payment,
5 pending Policy lapse or that the Policy had terminated. PRUDENTIAL's September 3, 2020, letter
6 was sent during the mandatory 60-day grace period in which the Policy is required to remain in force.

7 21. On September 4, 2020, Brian Nepinsky tragically died in a plane crash that occurred
8 that day.

9 22. On September 15, 2020, Plaintiff sent a check for $635.00 to PRUDENTIAL, which
10 was made payable to PRUDENTIAL. This check was sent to PRUDENTIAL while the Policy was 11 still in force due to the mandatory 60-day grace period.

12 23. PRUDENTIAL subsequently cashed Plaintiff's September 15, 2020, check.

13 24. By letter dated September 15, 2020, to FFL, PRUDENTIAL advised FFL that
14 PRUDENTIAL had not yet received the $635.00 payment due by July 26, 2020, but that the Policy
15 could be reinstated with a payment received by September 26, 2020. However, as noted, on
16 information and belief, as required by the law, PRUDENTIAL never sent to FFL a notice of pending
17 lapse and termination of policy at least 30 days before any purported termination of the Policy. In
18 addition, as of the date of PRUDENTIAL's September 15, 2020, letter, the Policy remained in force
19 due to the legally required 60-day grace period. Therefore, PRUDENTIAL's letter falsely stated that
20 the Policy had terminated. The letter further stated that if payment had already been made, the letter
21 could be disregarded. As noted, the payment had already been made by Plaintiff by check dated
22 September 15, 2020, and PRUDENTIAL cashed the check.

23 25. On September 29, 2020, PRUDENTIAL sent another letter to FFL stating that while
24 payment had not yet been received and although the Policy had lapsed, the Policy was eligible for
25 reinstatement. Again, Plaintiff paid the annual premium due before the expiration of the mandatory
26 60-day grace period and, on information and belief, without PRUDENTIAL ever having sent to FFL
27 a notice of pending lapse and termination of policy at least 30 days prior to any purported termination
28 of the Policy.

1           26. In addition, under the McHugh case, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233, regardless of whether
2 Plaintiff paid the annual $635.00 premium, since Mr. Nepinsky died during the legally mandated 60-
3 day grace period, PRUDENTIAL owed the $500,000 in indemnity benefits under the Policy.

4           27. PRUDENTIAL sent a letter dated October 24, 2020, to FFL, which enclosed a
5 PRUDENTIAL check for $635.00. The letter stated that PRUDENTIAL could not accept the check
6 because the Policy had lapsed. The PRUDENTIAL check was not cashed.

7           28. By letter dated September 27, 2021, Rene Turner, counsel for Plaintiff, made a claim
8 under the Policy on behalf of Plaintiff. Ms. Turner's letter discussed the factual history of the matter.
9 Ms. Turner's letter also stated that the change of beneficiary request made in August of 2020 (from 10 Mr. Riddington to Plaintiff), had been improperly rejected. Ms. Turner further provided a copy of the 11 July 26, 2021, written assignment of Mr. Riddington's rights and benefits, as a beneficiary under the 12 Policy, to Plaintiff. Ms. Turner's letter asked for confirmation that the Policy was in full force when
13 Mr. Nepinsky died. Ms. Turner's letter also stated: "I also hereby demand full payment of the policy."

14           29. Ms. Turner's letter further stated: "In the event it is your position that the policy was
15 not in effect, please provide written documentation setting forth a basis for your denial and provide a
16 complete copy of the file regarding this policy, including but not limited to, a copy of the policy, the 17 application, all payment records and all correspondence regarding this policy."

18           30. After having received Ms. Turner's September 27, 2021, letter, given its duties under
19 the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing and applicable California claims handling
20 regulations, PRUDENTIAL was required to "conduct and diligently pursue a thorough, fair and
21 objective investigation ...." Cal. Code Regs. Title 10, § 2695.7(d). PRUDENTIAL failed to conduct
22 any meaningful investigation. PRUDENTIAL did not contact Ms. Turner or Plaintiff. Based on
23 information and belief, PRUDENTIAL did not contact Mr. Riddington.

24           31. An "insurer bears a common law obligation to assist the insured to recover bargained-
25 for policy benefits. ... This obligation is often described as a manifestation of the duty of good faith
26 and fair dealing, which arises from every contract as an implied covenant generating both a
27 contractual obligation and a duty in tort." City of Hollister v. Monterey Insurance Company, 165 Cal.
28 App. 4th 455, 490-491 (2008). Despite the foregoing duty owed by PRUDENTIAL, PRUDENTIAL

1 made no effort to assist Plaintiff to recover benefits owed under the Policy.

2 32. Instead, by letter to Ms. Turner dated November 8, 2021, and without having engaged
3 in any meaningful investigation of the facts or controlling law, Kimberly King, Vice President of
4 Operations for PRUDENTIAL, represented as follows: "Our records indicate that this policy lapsed
5 on 8/26/2020 due to non-payment of an annual premium that was due on 7/26/2020. The insured died
6 on 9/4/2020 and the check from Valerie Nepinsky is dated 9/15/2020. A policy cannot be reinstated
7 after the death of the insured." The letter claimed that the payment "submitted by Valerie Nepinsky
8 was returned to the owner of the policy, FFL Inc., on 10-27-2020."

9 33. The November 8, 2021, letter sent by Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations
10 for PRUDENTIAL, further represented: "Unfortunately, the letter dated 9/15/2020, advising the
11 owner they were able to reinstate this policy, had already been mailed before the death of the insured
12 was reported to Prudential. This policy had a 31 day grace period before it would lapse if payment is
13 received within that grace period and before the death of the insured as it is explained on the letter
14 dated 9/15/2020 which was addressed to the owner, FFL Inc."

15 34. In the McHugh case, based on California Insurance Code section 10113.71(a), the 16 California Supreme Court held that "if the insured dies during the extended grace period [60 days
17 following the premium due date], the insurer will be required to pay benefits for which it has not
18 received a premium ... [although] the insurer would be entitled to deduct the unpaid premium
19 payment from any life insurance benefits it pays out." McHugh, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233

20 35. The opinion in the McHugh case, supra, 12 Cal. 5th 213, was issued on August 30,
21 2021. As a Vice President of Operations for a major life insurer conducting the business of insurance
22 in California, Ms. King and her employer, PRUDENTIAL, knew or should have known of the holding
23 in the McHugh case at and before the time that Ms. King sent her November 8, 2021, letter to Ms.
24 Turner. Therefore, the November 8, 2021, letter sent to Plaintiff's counsel by PRUDENTIAL's Vice
25 President of Operations intentionally or negligently misrepresented that the grace period was 31 days
26 rather than the legally mandated 60 days.

27 36. Under California's claims handling regulations, when an insured makes a 28 communication "that reasonably suggests that a response is expected, every licensee, shall

1 immediately, but in no event more than fifteen days after receipt of that communication, furnish the
2 claimant with a complete response based on the facts as the known by the licensee." Cal. Code Regs.
3 Title 10, § 2695.5(b). Despite Ms. Turner's request to PRUDENTIAL contained in her September
4 27, 2021, letter, PRUDENTIAL never sent Ms. Turner a complete copy of the file regarding the
5 Policy, including but not limited to, a copy of the Policy, the application, all payment records and all
6 correspondence regarding this Policy.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 Breach of Contract

9 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

10 37. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 36, above, as if set
11 forth in full herein.

12 38. FFL and PRUDENTIAL entered into a contract of life insurance (the Policy).

13 39. As relevant here, the material terms of the Policy were that: FFL was the owner of the 14 Policy; Brian Nepinsky was the insured under the Policy; Chris Riddington was the beneficiary under
15 the Policy; the Policy limits were $500,000.00; and upon the death of the insured, PRUDENTIAL
16 would pay the beneficiary $500,000.00.

17 40. As alleged supra, in August of 2020, prior to Mr. Nepinsky's death, because FFL was
18 closing its business, Chris Riddington, a co-owner of FFL, along with Brian Nepinsky, no longer
19 needed to be named as a beneficiary. A proper change in beneficiary form was sent to PRUDENTIAL
20 changing the beneficiary from Chris Riddington to Plaintiff. The document was improperly returned
21 by PRUDENTIAL claiming it did not have a signature. However, the PRUDENTIAL change in
22 beneficiary form did not have a signature line. As a result, Plaintiff should be considered the sole
23 beneficiary under the Policy as of August of 2020.

24 41. Alternatively, if Chris Riddington is deemed to be the sole beneficiary under the Policy
25 on the date that Mr. Nepinsky died, on July 26, 2021, as alleged supra, Chris Riddington assigned, in
26 writing, all rights and benefits he may have as beneficiary under the Policy to Plaintiff. Mr.
27 Riddington did so because that was the intent of FFL, Mr. Riddington and Mr. Nepinsky in August
28 of 2020 to make Plaintiff the beneficiary under the Policy. Therefore, as Mr. Riddington's assignee,

1 Plaintiff stands in the shoes of Mr. Riddington as the beneficiary under the Policy and has the
2 contractual right to receive all contractual benefits due under the Policy. As alleged supra,
3 PRUDENTIAL has known of the assignment of rights since receiving Ms. Turner's September 27,
4 2021, letter to PRUDENTIAL.

5 42. While the annual premium of $635.00 purportedly due by July 26, 2020, was not paid
6 by FFL on or before that date, as alleged supra, on information and belief, PRUDENTIAL never sent
7 a notice of pending lapse to FFL at least 30 days prior to any Policy lapse as required by California
8 law. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(b)(1).

9 43. In addition, as alleged supra, pursuant to California Insurance Code section
10 10113.71(a), regardless of when the Policy was issued or what the stated grace period is in the Policy,
11 the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law, to contain a grace period of 60 days past the missed premium
12 due date of July 26, 2020. The statutory 60-day grace period requirement supersedes any conflicting
13 language contained in the Policy. That means the Policy was required to remain in force, regardless
14 of whether the annual $635.00 annual premium was paid, for 60 days after July 26, 2020.

15 44. In addition, as alleged supra, PRUDENTIAL sent a September 3, 2020, letter to FFL.
16 That letter simply enclosed a bill for $635.00. The letter did not mention any missed payment or 17 policy lapse.

18 45. On September 4, 2020, Brian Nepinsky tragically died in a plane crash that occurred
19 that day.

20 46. As alleged supra, Mr. Nepinsky's death occurred on September 4, 2020, which is 21 within the legally required 60-day grace period when the Policy remained in force regardless of
22 whether the Policy contained a 31-day grace period or whether the annual $635.00 premium was
23 paid. McHugh, supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the
24 insurer will be required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ... [although] the
25 insurer would be entitled to deduct the unpaid premium payment from any life insurance benefits it
26 pays out.").

27 47. Nevertheless, on September 15, 2020, Plaintiff sent a check for $635.00 to
28 PRUDENTIAL which was made payable to PRUDENTIAL.

1 48. PRUDENTIAL subsequently cashed the check.

2 49. Plaintiff presented a claim to PRUDENTIAL via Ms. Turner's September 27, 2021,
3 letter to PRUDENTIAL.

4 50. Plaintiff and her assignor and FFL satisfied all conditions required under the Policy
5 and/or any such conditions allegedly complied with were waived by PRUDENTIAL and/or
6 PRUDENTIAL is equitably estopped from raising such conditions.

7 51. On November 8, 2021, PRUDENTIAL breached the Policy by not paying Plaintiff the
8 $500,000.00 limits of the Policy as demanded by Plaintiff. The breach occurred when PRUDENTIAL
9 refused to pay the benefits by its November 8, 2021, letter, not when PRUDENTIAL improperly
10 terminated the Policy. Poe v. Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, 2023 WL 5251875, at 11 * 4 (C.D. Cal. August 14, 2023).

12 52. Since the insured, Mr. Nepinsky, died within the legally mandated 60-day grace
13 period, PRUDENTIAL owed the full $500,000 indemnity limits of the Policy minus the unpaid
14 premium (which was in fact paid to PRUDENTIAL by Plaintiff on September 15, 2020).

15 53. PRUDENTIAL's November 8, 2021, breach of contract was a substantial factor in 16 causing Plaintiff's harm.

17 54. As a result of PRUDENTIAL'S breach of the Policy, Plaintiff has suffered damages,
18 including, but not limited to, loss of the $500,000 indemnity payment owed under the Policy, and
19 interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional harm and other consequential and incidental
20 damages to be proven at trial.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 Tortious Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

23 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

24 55. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 54, above, as if set
25 forth in full herein.

26 56. As alleged in the preceding cause of action, as a result of its breach of the Policy on
27 November 8, 2021, PRUDENTIAL has withheld from Plaintiff, either as the beneficiary under the
28 Policy or as the assignee of all the beneficiary's contractual rights and benefits under the Policy, the

1 $500,000 in indemnity benefits owed under the Policy.

2 57. PRUDENTIAL's withholding of the benefits owed under the Policy was unreasonable
3 and without proper cause.

4 58. First, on information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that PRUDENTIAL knew that it did
5 not lawfully provide notice of a pending Policy lapse and termination of policy to FFL, the owner of
6 the Policy, at least 30 days prior to any purported Policy termination.

7 59. Next, as alleged supra, even if the PRUDENTIAL Policy specifies a 31-day grace
8 period (and PRUDENTIAL has refused Plaintiff's request for a copy of the Policy), PRUDENTIAL
9 knew or should have known, particularly because the McHugh decision was issued at least two
10 months prior to PRUDENTIAL's claim denial, that California law has mandated that every life
11 insurance policy contain a 60-day grace period provision. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a); McHugh,
12 supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer will be
13 required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ... [although] the insurer would be
14 entitled to deduct the unpaid premium payment from any life insurance benefits it pays out."). The 15 statutory 60-day grace period requirement supersedes any conflicting language contained in the 16 Policy.

17 60. Prudential knew that Mr. Nepinsky's death occurred on September 4, 2020, which was
18 within the legally required 60-day grace period when the Policy was still in force regardless of 19 whether the Policy contained a 31-day grace period or whether the annual $635.00 premium was paid
20 (which it was ultimately timely paid).

21 61. PRUDENTIAL also knew that on September 3, 2020, during the required 60-day
22 grace period, PRUDENTIAL sent a bill for the annual $635.00 premium owed by FFL and that
23 Plaintiff subsequently paid said premium by check dated September 15, 2020. PRUDENTIAL also
24 knew that it cashed the September 15, 2020, check for the $635.00 annual premium payment.

25 62. Despite PRUDENTIAL's knowledge of the matters set forth above and as alleged
26 supra, in response to Plaintiff's counsel's September 27, 2021, letter making a claim to Prudential on
27 behalf of Plaintiff and demanding that PRUDENTIAL pay the Policy limits, by letter dated November
28 8, 2021, and without conducting any meaningful investigation, and violation of the statutory law

1 discussed, supra, and the McHugh case, PRUDENTIAL breached the Policy, in bad faith, by refusing
2 to pay the full indemnity limits owed. PRUDENTIAL also refused, in violation of its duty of good
3 faith and fair dealing and California claims handling regulations, to provide documents, upon the
4 request of Plaintiff's counsel, which are relevant to Plaintiff's claim for Policy benefits and
5 PRUDENTIAL's refusal to provide Policy benefits (see paragraphs 29, 36, supra).

6 63. PRUDENTIAL's November 8, 2021, denial letter also misrepresented California law
7 regarding the required grace period. PRUDENTIAL claimed that the Policy contained a 31-day grace
8 period. Notwithstanding what grace-period language the PRUDENTIAL Policy may contain (and
9 PRUDENTIAL refused Plaintiff's request for a copy of the Policy), PRUDENTIAL knew or should
10 have known, following the McHugh decision, that California law mandates that every life insurance
11 policy contain a 60-day grace period provision. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a).

12 64. The decision in the McHugh case was issued over two years ago. Notwithstanding that
13 PRUDENTIAL must be well-acquainted with said decision by now, PRUDENTIAL never re-opened
14 and evaluated Plaintiff's claim to determine whether PRUDENTIAL improperly withheld policy
15 benefits because of the McHugh decision and the California statutes discussed supra. PRUDENTIAL
16 obviously decided, for selfish economic reasons, to be reactive, not proactive, by defending against
17 the few lawsuits that arise (most consumers and attorneys who are not insurance coverage counsel
18 are not familiar with the statutes mentioned in this Complaint and the McHugh case) rather than re-
19 opening claims and paying claims which should have previously been paid and which are still owed.

20 65. PRUDENTIAL's unreasonable denial of coverage on November 8, 2021, and its other
21 bad faith conduct as alleged herein, has caused substantial harm to Plaintiff. This harm includes, but
22 is not limited to, the $500,000 in indemnity limits due to Plaintiff and unreasonably withheld by
23 PRUDENTIAL, and interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional distress, and other
24 economic damages, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

25 66. As a further result of PRUDENTIAL unreasonably withholding Policy benefits which
26 are due to Plaintiff, Plaintiff has had to retain attorneys to seek recovery of such Policy benefits. As
27 a result, under the authority of Brandt v. Superior Court, 37 Cal. 3d 813 (1985), Plaintiff is entitled
28 to recovery of her attorneys' fees incurred in seeking benefits unreasonably withheld by

1 PRUDENTIAL.

2 67. In addition, PRUDENTIAL's conduct as alleged herein has been oppressive,
3 fraudulent, and malicious, and such conduct has been authorized and/or ratified by the officers
4 (Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations), directors, or managing agent (Kimberly King, Vice
5 President of Operations) of PRUDENTIAL, thereby entitling Plaintiff to the recovery of punitive
6 damages against PRUDENTIAL.

7 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

8 INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION

9 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

10 68. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 67, above, as if set
11 forth in full herein.

12 69. By letter dated November 8, 2021, Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations, of 13 PRUDENTIAL, made the following representation to Plaintiff's counsel: "This policy had a 31 day
14 grace period before it would lapse if payment is received within that grace period and before the death
15 of the insured as it is explained on the letter dated 9/15/2020 which was addressed to the owner, FFL
16 Inc."

17 70. The foregoing representation was false, because even if the Policy contains a 31-day
18 grace-period and regardless of when the Policy was issued, the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law,
19 to contain a 60-day grace period and the Policy applies if the insured dies during the 60-day grace
20 period regardless of whether the overdue premium is paid. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a); McHugh,
21 supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer will be 22 required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ....").

23 71. Kimberly King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on
24 behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL,
25 knew that the representation was false when she made it, or she made the representation recklessly
26 and without regard for its truth.

27 72. Kimbely King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on
28 behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL,

1 intended that Plaintiff rely on the representation.

2 73. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the representation.

3 74. As a result, Plaintiff was harmed.

4 75. Plaintiff's reliance on said representation was a substantial factor in causing her harm.
5 This harm includes, but is not limited to, the $500,000 in indemnity limits due to Plaintiff and
6 unreasonably withheld by PRUDENTIAL, and interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional
7 distress, and other economic damages, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

8 76. In addition, PRUDENTIAL's conduct as alleged herein has been oppressive,
9 fraudulent, and malicious, and such conduct has been authorized and/or ratified by the officers
10 (Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations), directors, or managing agent (Kimberly King, Vice
11 President of Operations) of PRUDENTIAL, thereby entitling Plaintiff to the recovery of punitive
12 damages against PRUDENTIAL.

13 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

15 (By Plaintiff against all Defendants, including DOES 1 through 20)

16 77. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 76, above, as if set
17 forth in full herein.

18 78. By letter dated November 8, 2021, Kimberly King, Vice President of Operations, of 19 PRUDENTIAL, made the following representation to Plaintiff's counsel: "This policy had a 31 day
20 grace period before it would lapse if payment is received within that grace period and before the death
21 of the insured as it is explained on the letter dated 9/15/2020 which was addressed to the owner, FFL
22 Inc."

23 79. The foregoing representation was false, because even if the Policy contains a 31-day
24 grace-period and regardless of when the Policy was issued, the Policy is deemed, as a matter of law,
25 to contain a 60-day grace period and the Policy applies if the insured dies during the 60-day grace
26 period regardless of whether the overdue premium is paid. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a); McHugh,
27 supra, 12 Cal. 5th at 233 ("[I]f the insured dies during the extended grace period, the insurer will be 28 required to pay benefits for which it has not received a premium ....").

80. Kimberly King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL, made such a representation. Although Ms. King may have honestly believed that the representation was true, she had no reasonable grounds for believing the representation was true when she made it.

81. Kimbely King, with the knowledge and authorization of PRUDENTIAL, and on behalf of PRUDENTIAL, and within the course and scope of her employment with PRUDENTIAL, intended that Plaintiff rely on the representation.

82. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the representation.

83. As a result, Plaintiff was harmed.

84. Plaintiff's reliance on said representation was a substantial factor in causing her harm. This harm includes, but is not limited to, the $500,000 in indemnity limits due to Plaintiff and unreasonably withheld by PRUDENTIAL, and interest at the legal rate thereon, mental and emotional distress, and other economic damages, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against all Defendants as follows:

1. For all compensatory damages suffered and sustained by Plaintiffs on the first, second, third and fourth causes of action, including economic damages, mental and emotional distress, and Brandt attorney's fees, all in an amount to be proven at trial;
2. For punitive damages pursuant to the second and third causes of action;
3. For prejudgment interest on the economic damages;
4. For all awardable court costs; and
5. For such other and further relief in law or in equity as the Court deems just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

Overview & History

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is an increasingly popular option that allows people to resolve disputes outside of court in a cooperative manner. ADR can be faster, cheaper, and less stressful than going to court. Most importantly, the use of ADR can provide greater satisfaction with the way disputes are resolved.

ADR has been gradually evolving within the Fresno Superior Court for the past several years. In 1999 the Court recognized a need for greater public access to dispute resolution for cases and established an ADR Department. This department assists parties by providing information regarding ADR processes and services.

Civil Standing Order Regarding ADR:

In 2006, a Case Management Conference (CMC) Standing Order 07-0628, was implemented requiring parties in general civil cases filed in Fresno County Superior Court to participate in ADR prior to trial. This order and supporting ADR forms can be found on the court's website, www.fresno.courts.ca.gov under the "Forms," section. Please note, participation in ADR does not eliminate the need for proper and timely filing of case documents, such as an Answer to Complaint.

Disputes

ADR techniques have been used successfully in a variety of disputes involving individuals, small and large businesses, government, and the general public. Various types of ADR processes are available depending on the nature of the dispute. Many types of conflict often lend themselves to an alternative and informal method of dispute resolution. Some examples of disputes often settled by ADR include but are not limited to:

- Business disputes- contracts, partnerships
- Property / Land use disputes- property transfers, boundaries, easements
- Family disputes – divorce, property, custody, visitation, support issues
- Consumer / Collection disputes- repairs, services, warranties, debts
- Employment disputes- employment contracts, terminations
- Landlord/tenant disputes- evictions, rent, repairs, security deposits
- Neighborhood disputes / Relational disputes or other civil or personal conflicts
- Personal Injury / Insurance disputes- accidents, coverage, liability

Processes:

The most common forms of ADR are Mediation, Arbitration, and Case Evaluation. In most ADR processes, a trained, impartial person decides or helps the parties reach resolution of their dispute together. The persons are neutrals who are normally chosen by the disputing parties or by the court. Neutrals can often help parties resolve disputes without having to go to court or trial. Below is a description of commonly used processes:

Mediation

In mediation, the mediator (a neutral) assists the parties in reaching a mutually acceptable resolution of their dispute. Unlike lawsuits or some other types of ADR, the mediator does not decide how the dispute will be resolved, the parties do. It is a cooperative process guided by the mediator to create an agreement that addresses each person's interests. Mediation often leads to better communication between the parties and lasting resolutions. It is particularly effective when parties have a continuing relationship, such as neighbors or businesses. It also is very effective where personal feelings are getting in the way of a resolution. Mediation normally gives the parties a chance to express their concerns in a voluntary and confidential process while working towards a resolution. The mediation process is commonly used for most civil case types and can provide the greatest level of flexibility for parties.

Arbitration

In arbitration, the arbitrator (a neutral) reviews evidence, hears arguments, and makes a decision (award) to resolve the dispute. This is very different from mediation whereby the mediator helps the parties reach their own resolution. Arbitration is generally quicker, less expensive and less formal than a lawsuit. An arbitrator can often hear a case in a matter of hours rather than days in a trial. This is because the evidence can be submitted by documents rather than by testimony.

1. Binding Arbitration: Usually conducted by a private arbitrator, this process takes place outside of the court. "Binding" means that the arbitrator's decision (award) is final and there will not be a trial or an opportunity to appeal the decision.
2. Non-Binding Arbitration: May be ordered through the court (Judicial Arbitration) or conducted privately. In this process, the arbitrator's decision is "not binding." This means that if a party is not satisfied with the decision of the arbitrator, they can file a request for trial with the court within a specified time. However, depending on the process if that party does not receive a more favorable result at trial, they may have to pay a penalty.

Case Evaluation

In case evaluation, the evaluator (a neutral) gives an opinion on the strengths and weaknesses of each party's evidence and arguments. Each party gets a chance to present their case and hear the other side. This may lead to a settlement, or at the least, help the parties prepare to resolve the dispute later. Case evaluation, like mediation, can come early in the dispute and save time and money. The case evaluation process is most effective when parties have an unrealistic view of the dispute, need outside assistance in determining case value, and have technical or procedural questions to be worked out. This process is sometimes used in combination with mediation or arbitration.

ADR Agreements:

Agreements reached through ADR are normally put into writing and can become binding contracts that are enforceable in court. Parties may choose to seek the advice of an attorney as to your legal rights and other matters relating to the dispute before finalizing any agreement.

ADR Process Selection & Information:

There are several other types of ADR. Some of these include Conciliation, Settlement Conference, Fact Finding, Mini-Trial, Victim Offender Conferencing, and Summary Jury Trial. Sometimes parties will try a combination of ADR types. The important thing is to find the type of ADR that is most likely to resolve the dispute. Contact the ADR department staff for assistance for additional information and referral to services appropriate for each specific case.

Advantages & Disadvantages of ADR:

Advantages

- Often quicker than going to trial, a dispute may be resolved in a matter of days or weeks instead of months or years.
- Often less expensive, saving the litigants court costs, attorney's fees and expert fees.
- Permits more participation and empowerment, allowing the parties the opportunity to tell their side of the story and have more control over the outcome.
- Allows for flexibility in choice of ADR processes and resolution of the dispute.
- Fosters cooperation by allowing the parties to work together with the neutral to resolve the dispute and mutually agree to a remedy.
- Often less stressful than litigation. Most people have reported a high degree of satisfaction with ADR.

Because of these advantages, many parties choose ADR to resolve disputes instead of filing a lawsuit. Even after a lawsuit has been filed, the court can refer the dispute to a neutral before the lawsuit becomes costly. ADR is even used to resolve disputes after trial, when the result is appealed.

Disadvantages

- ADR may not be suitable for every dispute.
- If the ADR process is binding, the parties normally give up most court protections, including a decision by a judge or jury under formal rules of evidence and procedure, and review for legal error by an appellate court.
- ADR may not be effective if it takes place before the parties have sufficient information to resolve the dispute.
- The neutral may charge a fee for his or her services. If the dispute is not resolved through ADR, the parties may then have to face the usual and traditional costs, such as attorney's fees and expert fees.
  - Lawsuits must be brought within specified periods of time, known as Statutes of Limitations. Parties must be careful not to let a Statute of Limitation run while a dispute is in an ADR process

Neutral Selection:

The selection of a neutral is an important decision. Please note that currently there is no legal requirement that the neutral be licensed or hold any particular certificate. However, many programs and the Court have established qualification requirements and standards of conduct for their neutral panels.

Mediation Practitioner Panel:

Fresno County Superior Court, Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Department maintains a fee-for-service Mediation Panel as a public service for court litigants and the community. Those listed have met the Court's eligibility requirements and have agreed to abide by the Court's professional standards of conduct in order to participate as a panel member. The panel list can be found on the Court's website under the Alternative Dispute Resolution link,

www.fresno.courts.ca.gov/alternative\_dispute\_resolution/Mediator

Free / Low Cost ADR Service Options

For cases involving self-represented litigants or those unable to afford a private mediator, the court contracts with the following organization to provide free or low cost mediation services through Dispute Resolution Program Act (DRPA) funding.

- Better Business Bureau Mediation Center- *This organization provides mediation for family law property disputes, small claims, landlord / tenant, business, consumer/ merchant, harassment, and neighborhood disputes.
